last fall mc cluer was given the honor of a visit by a distinguished group of foreign celebrities, each of whom is an outstanding authority in his field. Our photographer caught some candid shots of these interesting figures.

monsieur ramon de la finesse, noted millionaire, philanthropist, and connoisseur of art: mr. de la finesse told our reporter, "the secret of my success is my black tie, my eyepatch, and my bright, shiny, red wagon."

dr. perry noid freud, famous viennese psychologist: "well, yes, i do enjoy psychology, because the libido is directly correlated to the overt nature of the heterotrophic psyche; furthermore, people will listen to a man who manifests his internal erudition with a beard."

mademoiselle francoise chapeau, noted french fashion designer: "zank you zo much for allowing me to zee your zcoops! zey are not so much to read, but zey are fantastique as hats!"

dr. jay l. keyes, internationally renowned biologist and kleptomaniac: (dr. keyes was caught off guard by our photographer as he was rifling mlle. chapeau's purse.) when questioned, he remarked, "we biologists are constantly, er, delving into the secrets of life. i thought i heard some dna rustling around in here."

. . . for without them
this book could not
have been created

the world hates change, yet it is the only thing that has brought progress.

. . . to this thought, this
book is dedicated.

To a
real
"cool head"
whatever
that
means. Good Luck!

last fall mc cluer was given the honor of a visit by a distinguished group of foreign celebrities, each of whom is an outstanding authority in his field. Our photographer caught some candid shots of these interesting figures.

monsieur ramon de la finesse, noted millionaire, philanthropist, and connoisseur of art: mr. de la finesse told our reporter, "the secret of my success is my black tie, my eyepatch, and my bright, shiny, red wagon."

dr. perry noid freud, famous viennese psychologist: "well, yes, i do enjoy psychology, because the libido is directly correlated to the overt nature of the heterotrophic psyche; furthermore, people will listen to a man who manifests his internal erudition with a beard."

mademoiselle francoise chapeau, noted french fashion designer: "zank you zo much for allowing me to zee your zcoops! zey are not so much to read, but zey are fantastique as hats!"

dr. jay l. keyes, internationally renowned biologist and kleptomaniac: (dr. keyes was caught off guard by our photographer as he was rifling mlle. chapeau's purse.) when questioned, he remarked, "we biologists are constantly, er, delving into the secrets of life. i thought i heard some dna rustling around in here."

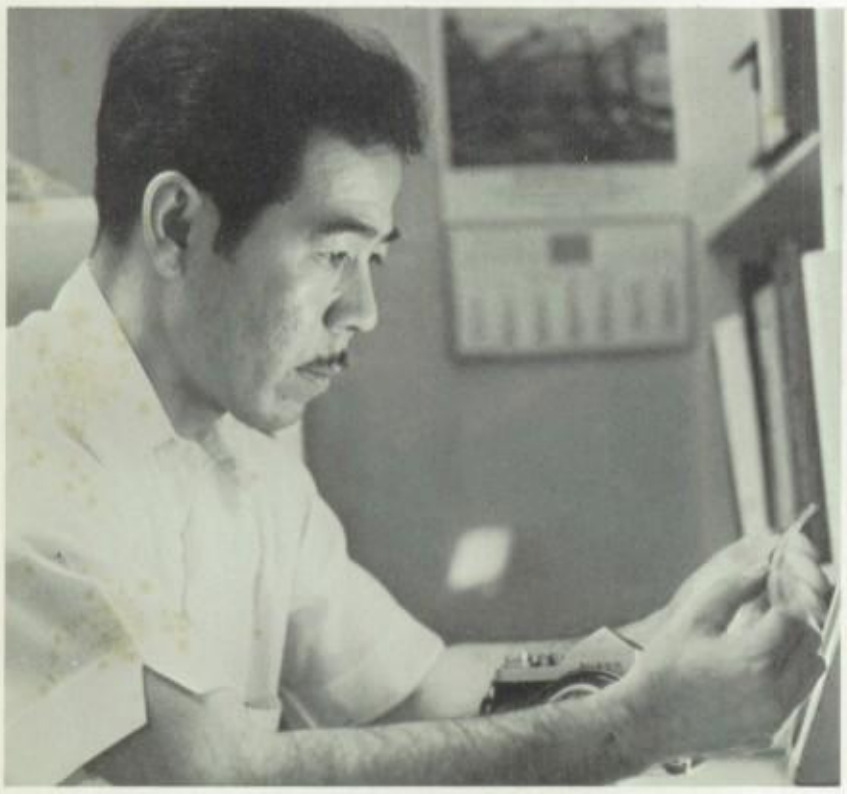
apples and . . .

frank zukeran



bob jones

. . . for without them
this book could not
have been created

the world hates change, yet
it is the only thing that has
brought progress.

charles f. kettering

. . . to this thought, this
book is dedicated.

To a
real
"cool head"
whatever
that means. Good Luck!

Brad
Robinson

To Jim
a real nice
guy. Hot is lucky he didn't have Blackburn
Don Coast

and then . . . there's our sponsor . . .
